

Thank you for agreeing to contribute to Unleashing the Potentials of Blockchain Technology for Healthcare Industries (the “Work”) (#618246) edited by Mangesh M Ghonge, Pradeep N, Amar Das, Yulei Wu, and Om Pal (the “Editors”). This Agreement between you (the “Lead Contributor”) and Academic Press, an imprint of Elsevier Inc. (the “Publisher”) regarding your Contribution (the “Contribution”) outlines our respective obligations and rights.

If the Contribution will be authored by the Lead Contributor in conjunction with one or more co-contributor, the Lead Contributor warrants that the Lead Contributor has informed all of the co-contributors of the terms of this Agreement and that the Lead Contributor is agreeing to the terms and conditions of the Agreement on their behalf and is authorized to do so. Lead Contributor and co-contributors are referred to collectively herein as “Contributor.”

The Contribution will conform to the Author’s/Editor’s specific requirements as to page length, content, level, style, and delivery requirements, including due date. The Contributor will also deliver with the manuscript agreed upon illustrations (meaning [optional: multimedia content], photographs, drawings, sketches, diagrams, charts, maps, tabular matter and any other accompanying material) (collectively the “Illustrations”), along with captions for all such Illustrations. The Contributor agrees to use the Publisher’s authoring platform (the “Elsa Console”) to write and deliver the Contribution. If requested, the Contributor also agrees to review proofs of the Contribution in the designated time period, making any necessary revisions and answering queries. The Publisher reserves the right to revise the Contribution if required to render it suitable for publication, including the substitution of borrowed material, provided such changes do not substantially change the meaning of the text.

Should any materials in the Contribution be the work of others, said materials must be properly credited, and the Contributor agrees to obtain and pay for any necessary grant of permission for use of others’ materials. Such permission grant letters will permit the Publisher to use such material in a manner consistent with the rights granted to the Publisher herein. The Contributor will also deliver with the manuscript a permissions log to be completed in accordance with the Contributor instructions provided by the Publisher together with copies of all the permission grant letters.

The Contributor assigns to the Publisher the copyright and all other rights in and to the Contribution. This assignment of rights means that the Publisher has the exclusive right to publish and reproduce the Contribution, or any part of the Contribution, in print and all other forms of media, in any edition, revision, or other form, in all languages, throughout the world, and the right to license others to do the same. The Publisher may list the Contributor’s name and affiliation for credit, promotional and advertising purposes associated with the Contributor’s Contribution in such manner which, in the Publisher’s judgment, fairly reflects the Contribution.

The Contributor authorizes use by the Publisher and its applicable affiliates, licensees and service providers worldwide of the Contributor's name, image, likeness, voice, biography, and professional affiliations (at the Publisher's discretion) for purposes of advertising, promoting and publicizing the Work and all updates and derivatives thereof and the Contributor's contact details, including postal and email addresses, for purposes of communicating with the Contributor about the Work and writing, reviewing, researching or contributing to other relevant projects with the Publisher.

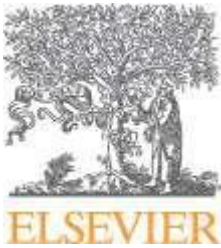

The Contributor may publish a summary of the Contribution on the Contributor's personal or institution website and may make print or electronic copies of up to ten percent (10%) of the Contribution for the Contributor's coursework use. The Contributor also retains the right to draw upon the information and materials contained in the contribution for the Contributor's continued professional and educational use, such as for course and meeting lectures and in the preparation of journal articles or book chapters. In all such cases the Contributor must appropriately cite the Work and the Publisher as the copyright holder of the Contribution.

Publisher hereby licenses to Contributor a revocable, non-exclusive, temporary license (the "Tool License") to use the (i) Publisher's authoring tool kit (including but not limited to the Elsa Console and other authoring tools), (ii) Publisher's proprietary intellectual property, (iii) Publisher's proprietary software applications, (iv) Publisher's database text and imaging management tools and systems, and (v) Publisher's content templates and Work structure. Use of this Tool License is restricted to use by the Contributor solely in the preparation of the Contribution and the preparation of the Work. Contributor acknowledges that the Contributor has no right, title or interest to the Publisher's proprietary intellectual property and other elements licensed herein other than as granted by this Tool License and agree to promptly return all copies thereof and any Publisher property to Publisher upon termination of the Tool License. Contributor shall not allow any other parties to use any elements licensed herein without the prior, written approval of Publisher.

The Publisher will provide the lead Contributor with one (1) free copy of the Work, and the Contributor may purchase up to five (5) additional copies directly from the Publisher at a discount of 30%, all for personal use and not for resale.

The Contributor confirms that the Contribution is original to the Contributor, [except for materials already published in previous editions of this Work, materials in which rights are controlled by third parties, and third-party material that is either in the public domain or for which appropriate permission has been obtained] has not been previously published, and the Contributor has the right to grant to the Publisher the rights described above; the Contributor confirms that the Contribution does not contain any material that infringes any third party rights or is harmful to the user. The Contributor also confirms that to the best of the Contributor's knowledge the Contribution contains no libelous, unlawful or otherwise actionable matter.

The Contributor represents and warrants that he/she has disclosed in writing to the Publisher all actual and potential competing interests, both financial and non-financial, if any in relation to the Contribution. (Examples of financial conflicts include employment, consultancies, stock ownership, honoraria, paid expert testimony, grants, patents or patent applications, and travel grants. Competing interests may also arise as a result of personal relationships, academic competition, and intellectual beliefs, such as political or religious beliefs.)

The Publisher shall be entitled to terminate this agreement on written notice if the Contributor commits a criminal act or otherwise acts in a manner (as determined by the Publisher in its sole discretion) likely to bring the Publisher and/or the Contribution into disrepute including but not limited to acting in a manner that violates the Contributor's ethical duties or obligations to the Publisher.

The Publisher expects that the Contributor will treat the Publisher's employees who work on the Contribution with respect and professionalism. Accordingly, if the Publisher learns that the Contributor has engaged in conduct with regards to any employee of the Publisher that the Publisher, in its sole discretion, considers to be bullying, disrespectful, inappropriate or unprofessional (including, but not limited to, by using language or behaving in a way that is discriminatory or abusive), the Publisher will notify the Contributor of the situation. If, in its sole discretion, the Publisher determines that immediate and sustained improvement is not seen or the behavior is so egregious that it would be unreasonable to subject any of the Publisher's employees to any further interaction with the Contributor, the Publisher shall be entitled to terminate this agreement on written notice. For the purposes of this section "Publisher's employees" include employees of Publisher's affiliates.

If the Publisher decides not to proceed with publication of the Contribution, the Publisher will revert all rights to the Contributor. The Publisher reserves the right to revise the Contribution if required to render it suitable for publication, including the substitution of borrowed material. The Publisher may but is under no obligation to request the Contributor's participation in any subsequent editions of the Work, and the Publisher may use all or any of the Contribution in any such revisions and/or editions or in any other manner or form and may have the Contribution revised by another contributor in the Publisher's sole discretion.
